- c. 11/25/2019: Counsel shall furnish the Court Reporter with an electronic list of all exhibits to be offered and electronic list of names for all anticipated witnesses. If available, counsel shall provide the Court Reporter with electronic keyword indices for all anticipated expert witnesses. Any other concerns or requests from counsel to the Court Reporter or from the Court Reporter to counsel should also be discussed at that time.
- d. 11/25/2019: Any party proposing to offer all or any portion of a deposition shall notify opposing counsel no later than November 25, 2019 of the offers to be made (unless the necessity for using the deposition develops unavoidably thereafter). If any differences cannot be resolved, the Court must be notified in writing of such differences no later than December 5, 2019.
- e. 01/03/2020: The parties have represented that they will cooperate to exchange information regarding scheduling of witnesses, including anticipated time frames and the order of appearance on or before January 3, 2020.
- f. 11/25/2019: It is directed that requests for instructions and proposed verdict forms be submitted to the Court on or before November 25, 2019, subject to the right of counsel to supplement such requests during the course of trial on matters that cannot be reasonably anticipated. Each party is to submit a separate concise proposed instruction stating their contentions. Requests for instructions are to include one set with authority and one additional set ready for submission to the jury; no signature block on the bottom of each instruction is necessary.
